

B2- 481

WILLIAM VOSS ELDER III HOUSE - Before 1850 - West side of Black Rock Road, entrance opposite the terminus of Ridge Road. Apparently the home of Rich. C. Tracy in 1877 atlas. Victorian or Gothic Revival house, frame, in vertical board and batten; gold-yellow paint. Three bays wide; Gothic window in cross-gable. The land here was acquired by Richard C. Boring in 1858; part of the tract "Carthagenia". Owner: William Voss Elder, III, famous curator of Americana.